County and city authorities received information that the mountain men had left Barbourville on a | the special train for Frankfort to be present at the examining trial of Secretary of State Powers, Capt. John Davis and W. H. Culton before County Judge Daniel Moore to-morrow moraing. This caused the precaution of summoning a force under Sheriff Suter to enable him to prevent any attempt to take the prisoners from his custody and to preserve order.

County Attorney Polsgrove last night presented a petition to Beekham setting forth certain rumors and reports and other information he had regarding the danger to the prosecuting officers, witnesses and county officers and the prospect that interference might occur should the mountain friends of the prisoner come here armed and crowd the court room

Such is the situation here now and I intend, so iar as I have the power, to protect the constituted tribunals. I call upon the good and law-ab-ding people of our commonwealth to aid and assist me not by physical force, but by moral support. We have placed our cause in the hands of the law and we must continue to rely upon the law. Let no act of violence or lawlessness be committed anywhere and let our people who have shown such patience and conservatism herotofore continue to show it. My great trust and reliance is in the strong common-sense and integrity of the people of our State, and trust me that I believe that out of our present difficulties there will soon come peace, order and restoration of law.

WRONGED CAPT. DOHERTY.

CONFESSION OF THE WOMAN WILL TESTIFIED AGAINST HIM.

Says She Was Actuated by a Spirit of Revenge Against the Captain Who Tried to Close Her Disorderly House-She Is Dying and Desires to Right the Wrong.

ALBANY, March 22 .- To correct a supposed wroug, Senator Ford to-night introduced three bills, which were ordered to a third reading without reference, and which authorize the Police Commissioners of New York city to rehear and determine the charges on account of which former Police Captain Michael Doherty and Detectives Bernard Mechan and John Hock were dismissed from the New York police force, as evidence has been adduced, showing the the men were the victims of the revenge of a keeper of a disorderly house thay sought to drive out of business.

The woman who gave the testimony against them was Mrs. Augustus Thurow of 15 St. Mark's place, New York city. She testifled before the Lexow Investigating Committee in the spring of 1804 that she had paid money to Capt. Doherty and Detectives Meehan and Hock for protection purposes, and that she had several times visited Capt. Doherty, who was then in charge of the Fourteenth precinct, in his office, and had talked protection matters over with him. She gave the same testimony hefore the Police Commissioners in July. 1894. and the men were dismissed. Mrs. Thurow is now dying, but she does not want to die before righting the wrong she has done. She has made an affidavit in which she says:

"I was actuated by a spirit of revenge against Capt. Doherty for having annoyed me and endeavoring to break up my business and close my house. Out of this spirit of revenge ment. The crowd forced an entrance to the house | against Capt. Doherty, as the result of his said endeavors to break up my business and closed my house.
